

Supply Chain Management uddannelser 2024

APICS-certificeringer er standarden for uddannelse inden for driftsledelse og produktionslogistik. Over hele verden betragtes APICS som den bedste uddannelse for fagfolk, der arbejder med drift og supply chain management. ASCM er foreningen, der administrerer og opdaterer APICS-uddannelserne. ASCM står for "Association for Supply Chain Management".

Søger du en international anerkendt uddannelse inden for Supply Chain Management, som du kan gennemføre i Danmark, er det muligt gennem DDV.

Uddannelserne foregår på engelsk med APICS-godkendt instruktør.

Uddannelserne er ikke ECTS-givende i Danmark.

Certified in Planning and Inventory Management

COVID-pandemien ændrede forbrugernes efterspørgsel og satte fokus på forsyningskædens sårbarheder. Dette gør planlægning vigtigere end nogensinde, og CPIM-programmet giver dig værktøjer og færdigheder til at løse disse udfordringer.

Efter gennemførelse af et APICS CPIM forløb demonstrerer deltageren beherskelse af organisationens interne drift og en dybdegående forståelse af materialestyring, masterplanlægning, prognose, produktionsplanlægning og hvordan det gælder på tværs af den udvidede forsyningskæde.

Certified Supply Chain Professional

Virksomheden af supply chain management i virksomheder vokser stadig. Udviklingen sker inden for alle brancher, fra industri til serviceorienterede virksomheder og profit til non-profit. Kunden forventer høj kvalitet og lave priser, men kunden lægger også mere og mere vægt på hurtig og pålidelig levering af produkter og ydelser. Som et resultat er effektiv produktion og distribution afgørende for at klare den globale konkurrence i dag.

Med kurset CSCP lærer du, hvordan du håndterer denne udvikling.
